

NEWS NOTES

Beer rooms in Alberta are now allowed to remain open Saturday evenings until 10 p.m. The new regulations went into effect last Saturday.

The worst apocryphal windstorm in 50 years blew newly-mown hay from the seed in a few last Thursday, and tore up growing wheat grains.

The high river strait is suffering from the higher pool. The country is said to be alive with gophers this spring and it is believed the little animals migrated from Saskatchewan and southeastern Alberta last fall.

The slippery John Dillinger, American fugitive desperado, has again eluded the police. Monday morning he shot his way out of a police cord on after being surrounded in a Wisconsin forest hide-out. Since his escape from Crown Point, Indiana, July March 3, with the aid of a weak on revolver, Dillinger has repeatedly fooled the law officers. His most daring coup was the raiding of a police arsenal at Warsaw, Indiana, where he pilfered guns and bullet-proof vests from under the noses of policemen.

A survey and study of education in the rural districts in Alberta is to be made by a special committee recently appointed by the provincial government. The committee is headed by Hon. Percival Baker, minister of Education. John MacKinnon, independent member of the legislature, is named as a member of the committee.

Sales of medicine advertised to cure cancer, tuberculosis, diabetes, and other diseases, will be prohibited in Canada after the new regulations to the Food and Drugs Act are introduced in the near future.

Since the elimination of tax duty in Calgary city merchants have been deluged with requests from many organizations and individuals for donations of money, clothing, and other goods. Almost every day brings a visitor who is admitted to a store or who has a request for a donation for a "worthy" cause. The situation has become so serious that the merchants are asking the city to order to divert a way of overcoming it.

A survey of Alberta's telephone system has just been completed by Harry Barker, New York's telephone engineer. His complete report will be submitted to the government. Barker suggested a few days ago that the telephone system be sold off the system's books. He also said that the telephone lines were long way from being self-supporting, and if they were to be continued they could be considered only as a social service.

Smaller bank notes for Canada is the recommendation of the Montreal Board of Trade. The board believes the opening of the new Bank of Canada would be an advantage to the country if the dimensions of the bills.

It will pay to keep your automobile tires pressure clean. Three motorists paid fine for driving on tires that were out of the legal limit for having dirty or bad tire pressure.

Premier J. E. Brownlee, in discussing the price regulation, said that will come into effect with the Industrial Act passed by the legislature. The Alberta Legislature, informed that prices of certain commodities are being regulated. The government is now organizing the new system.

The sum of $24,524.36 was paid in to the federal treasury by Canadian smokers during the first 11 months of the past year, and the amount returned in the form of a refund was $24,524.36. The money was collected in the form of a refund in various forms. Duties on cigars, supplied two-thirds of the total.

Aaron Shapiro, New York attorney who became known in Western Canada thru his connection with the Wheat Pool in the early stages of its organization, is on trial in Chicago in connection with an alleged "black" racket.

POWER COMPANY POLES ARE GIVEN INSPECTION

Poles of the Calgary Power Co. Ltd., electric light and power system in Banaroo were given an inspection Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon under the supervision of H. B. Lehoucq, engineer, and J. H. Jenkins, assistant.

Every one of the company's 270 poles in Banaroo were inspected. The poles were found to be decayed below the surface by the action of insects. These will be replaced.

The poles on the main power line west of Banaroo are being inspected, volunteered Mr. Lehoucq.

"TOMMY" ATKINS GETS POSTMASTER APPOINTMENT

Aurice Atkins, known to his friends as "Tommy" Atkins, has been appointed postmaster at Brentwood Bay, Vancouver Island, where he has been living at Brentwood Bay since he sold his store in Glen and two years ago. A few months ago he acquired a store business, and now he is postmaster.

HIGH TEMPERATURES

Unusually high temperatures have been recorded here this week. The government thermometer at Glen for the past five years, C. P. R. irrigation dam registered 85 degrees above zero last Sunday and Monday.

Death Claims

Walter Deegan

Funeral services held Tuesday for Walter Deegan, died in C. G. Gold Camp last Thursday.

Walter Deegan, well known Banaroo cattle man, died at Barkerville, British Columbia, last Thursday, April 18, at the age of 46 years. The examining doctor reported heart failure as the cause of death.

The body was brought back to Banaroo early Tuesday morning. April 24, and funeral services were conducted by Father Morrow in the Roman Catholic Church at 2:00 p.m. that morning. Relatives and many friends attended the service. Interment was made in the Banaroo Cemetery.

Word of his death reached Banaroo last Thursday afternoon from Barkerville. He went to the Cariboo gold camp last May with a horse outfit to dig a ditch for the French Creek Flats. A few days before his death he was awarded a court's decision in a lawsuit to recover pay for his contract.

Walter Deegan was born Dec. 26, 1885, at Banaroo. He was married to Miss Rebecca Finlayson, daughter of John S. Finlayson. The family came to Banaroo in 1904, and Deegan had served with the French front service for two years and with the British army for three years during the war. For five years he was in the employ of the Banaroo Cattle Co.

His river rider and a skillful roping, he was a prominent figure at the rodeo for the past few years. He has acted as one of the stampede judges. He was a member of the Banaroo Cattle Co. and the Banaroo Cattle Assn.

He is survived by his wife, Edith, daughter of John S. Finlayson, and his father, John Deegan, of Banaroo, and two sisters, Mrs. W. J. Finlayson, of Banaroo, and Mrs. W. J. Finlayson, of Banaroo. He is also survived by his father, John Deegan, of Banaroo, and two sisters, Mrs. W. J. Finlayson, of Banaroo, and Mrs. W. J. Finlayson, of Banaroo.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday at the Roman Catholic Church. Burial will be in the Banaroo Cemetery.

Flock of Swans Increased to 55

A flock of 55 beautiful white swans, from the Banaroo dam, is feeding ground this spring. Jack Fraser, of Banaroo, is the owner of the flock. He has counted the birds several times since their arrival in the lake.

He examined the body of one of them, which died from the dam, and an inspection confirmed his belief that the dam was the cause of the death. Mr. Fraser could discern no wound on the dead bird, so he believes it died from natural causes.

Last year about 32 birds of this species were seen here. Flocks of ducks and geese are making their summer camps here. The flocks of waterfowl are now feeding.

Seven Teams In Irrigation Circuit

Seven teams in the Eastern Irrigation Circuit are scheduled to open the ball Sunday, April 28.

The league is divided into two sections, with Banaroo, Bow City, and Strathcona in the southern section, and Brooks, Rosemary, Dufresne, and Patricia in the northern section.

Rainier will play at Bow City on the opening day, April 28. Brooks plays at Rosemary Sunday, and Dufresne plays at Patricia the same day.

Ralph Burrows, veteran ball player and captain of the Rosemary team, is expected to play for the Banaroo club a couple of weeks ago, and will be in action until next month.

Ball Club Raises $35 At Social Evening

A good sized crowd turned out to the white dress and dance put on by the Banaroo Baseball Club at the Friday evening at the Mascoe Community Hall.

Club officials received a total of $32 on the evening's entertainment. Mrs. M. H. Hargrave and Mrs. C. R. Robinson, Crawford, won ladies first and second prizes respectively, and N. Hargrave and J. H. Holmes were the gentlemen prize winners.

Members of the ball club express their thanks for the splendid support they received in the form of entertainment, patronage, and donations.

GEM NEWS

OREM, April 24.—Gem school was crowded on Monday evening, when the Gem School, P. M. W. A. together with a few friends, sponsored the faraway party of Mrs. R. Lavinie, who are leaving Gem to reside in the Huskar district. Mr. Lavinie was accompanied by the Gem to Huskar by the Wheat Pool organization.

In the employ of the Wheat Pool as agent there. The whop of the cowboy, the switch of the larri, and the thunder of the horse, will be heard this night at Huskar's annual twenty-first of May celebration.

Huskar has put the stampee and cowboy events back on the program of her annual sports day. Last year's celebration day included no stampee, and the management believed the slim attendance was due to the omission of the popular bucking broncos, roping, calf riding, horse races, and other wild west entertainment.

All this will be presented to thrill Huskar May 23, and good prize money is being offered to attract the best riders in this part of the territory.

Three prizes of $25, $15, and $10, will be offered to the winner of the bucking broncos, roping, calf riding, horse races, and other wild west entertainment.

GARDEN CONTEST

With a view to encouraging the pleasant and profitable hobby of gardening among the members of the Boy's Club, Rev. John Hart has offered a small money prize. It will go to the boy who personally prepares and lists the best garden of about an area of 12 feet by 12 feet. Already a number of boys have agreed to compete, and Mr. Hart would like to increase the prizes if any one cares to assist. Judges will examine the gardens several times in the course of the season.

TENNIS NOTES

Delayed by failure to receive a shipment of goods including court tapes, the tennis season failed to open in Bassano last Saturday. Club members expect to be playing within a few days.

Gleichen tennis players are considering a plan to build two asphalt courts. The estimated cost is approximately $200, and if 25 members can be secured to subscribe $8.00 each, the courts can be built this spring.

A junior division of the Brooks Tennis Club has been organized, with the veteran Frank Berry as coach.

GOLF NOTES

Official opening of the Brooks Golf Club will take place Saturday, April 28.

The golf course is a very popular place these days. Many golfers both young and old are taking advantage of the good weather to get out and spend a few pleasant hours on the links.

The greens have been mowed and are now quite playable though there is still the fresh nature of sand and oil to be applied. The clubhouse site has been chosen and arrangements are being made to have it fitted up as soon as possible.

Current fees are now due and the executive committee requests that members bring their dues to the membership committee or to the secretary at his office.

The executive has announced that memberships will be given the first five juniors calling at the office of the secretary and undertaking the care of green areas this season. Greens will be allotted by the secretary, and the member undertaking the care of them will be responsible for the full season. The only proviso to this offer is that only one such membership will be granted to any one family.
